

StatCrunch BUS 233 resources

1. The main StatCrunch website is <http://www.statcrunch.com/> . There you can log in using your MyStatLab user ID and PW and access many resources as well as StatCrunch itself.
 - A quick but sufficient introduction to StatCrunch is in this 8-minute video StatCrunch: Getting Started
 - These StatCrunch Examples give you step-by-step procedures to most of the statistical methods in StatCrunch.
2. On Dr. Dawn Wright's YouTube channel BUS 233 Introductory Business Statistics playlist, there are about 60 videos illustrating the use of StatCrunch on typical MyStatLab problems. They are organized into the chapters in the Larson text.
